

FRAMEWORK OF THE ETTU COACHING SEMINAR (Budapest, 24th-26th January 2016)

Sunday, 24th January

- 14,00 – 17,00 Arrival, accommodation (Hotel Budapest, Szilagyı Erzsebet fasor 47, 1026 Budapest, Hungary)
- 17,30 – 20,00 Feng Zhe (CHN) Introductory theoretical lecture (Methodical approach to learning of technical skills for young players I) – Translator Mr. Bill Chan (CAN)
- 20,15 Dinner

Monday, 25th January

- 08,00 Breakfast
- 09,00 – 12,30 Feng Zhe (CHN) „Methodical approach to learning of technical skills for young players II“ – video presentation and practical session – Translator Mr. Bill Chan (CAN)
- 13,00 Lunch

15,30 – 18,30 Feng Zhe (CHN) „Methodical approach to learning of technical skills for young players III“ – Practical Session and discussion

- 19,00 Dinner
- 20,00 Mr. Sc. I.R. Faber (NED) Presentation „Profiling international elite youth table tennis players using a multidimensional approach“
- 20,45 Doc. Dr. Sc. Goran Munivrana (CRO)
„Presentation of global university education project designed for table tennis coaches and players

Tuesday, 26th January

- 08,00 Breakfast
- 09,00 – 12,30 Feng Zhe (CHN) „Selection criteria in China at a young age“ – Theoretical and practical session
- 13,00 Lunch and departure

Further information is available from Mr Neven Cegnar, ETTU Development Manager, (ncegnar@gmail.com).